1 Corinthians 15:20–24A, 25–28

L   écti-o Epístolæ primæ be-á-ti Pauli apósto-li ad Corínthi-os

F   ratres: Nunc Christus resurréxit a mórtu-is, primí-ti-æ dormi-é-ti-um; quóni-am enim per hóminem mors, et per hóminem resurrécti-o mortu-órum. Sicut enim in Adam omnes mori-úntur, i-ta et in Chris-to omnes vivi-ficabúntur. Unusquísque autem in su-o órdine: primí-tiæ Christus, de-índe hi qui sunt Christi in advéntu eius. De-índe finis, cum tradidérit Regnum De-o et Patri. Opórtet autem illum regnáre, « donec ponat omnes inimicos sub p[er]dibus eius ». Nov[is]sima autem inimica destru-étur mors; « ómni-a enim subiécit sub p[er]dibus eius ». Cum autem dicat: « Omni-a subiéc[ta] sunt », sine dúbi-o pr[æ]ter e-um qui subiécit e-i ómni-a. Cum autem subiéc[ta] fú-erint illi ómni-a, tunc ipse

Fí-li-us subiéc[us] erit illi, qui sibi subiécit ómni-a, ut sit De-us ómni-a in ómnibus.

℣. Verbum Dómini. ℟. De-o grá-ti-as.
