

Reading I for Third Sunday of Advent

Year A

Isaiah 35:1–6A, 10

L  écti-o libri Isaí-æ prophétæ

L  ætábitur desérta et ínvi-a, et exsultábit so-litúdo et florébit quasi lí-li-um. Gérminans germinábit et exsultábit lætabúnda et laudans.

 Glóri-a Líbani data est e-i, decor Carmé-li et Saron; ipsi vidébunt glóri-am Dómini et decórem De-i nostri. Confortáte manus dissolútas, et génu-a debí-li-a roboráte; díci-te pusillánimis: « Confortámini et no-lí-te timére: Ecce De-us vester ulti-ónem addúcet retributi-ónis:

De-us ipse véni-et et salvábit vos ». Tunc aperi-éntur ócu-li cæcórum, et aures surdórum patébunt; tunc sá-li-et sicut cervus claudus, et apérta erit lingua mutórum. Redémpti a Dómino converténtur, et vénient in Si-on cum laude, et lætí-ti-a sempi-térna super caput e-órum;

gáudi-um et lætí-ti-am obtinébunt, et fúgi-et dolor et gémitus.

℣. Verbum Dómini. ℞. De-o grá-ti-as.