

Gospel for the Requiem Mass

8

Luke 23:44-46, 50, 52-53; 24:1-6A

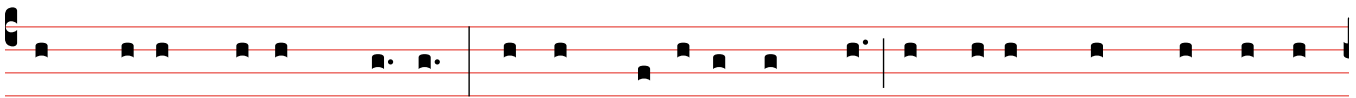

Tonus Antiquior

Dóminus vobíscum. R̃. Et cum spí-ritu tu-o.

Y. Lécti-o Sancti Evangé-li-i secúndum Lucam. R̃. Glóri-a tibi, Dómine.

E-rat fere hora sexta, et ténebræ factæ sunt in univérsa terra usque in horam nonam. Et obscurátus est sol, et velum templi scissum est médi-um. Et clamans voce magna Iesus a-it: « Pater, in manus tu-as comméndo spí-ritum me-um ». Et hæc dicens expirávit. Et ecce vir, nómine Ioseph, qui erat decúri-o, vir bonus et iustus, accéssit ad Pi-látum et pé-ti-it corpus Iesu; et depósitum invólvit síndone et pósu-it e-um in monuménto excíso, in quo nondum quisquam pósitus fú-erat. Prima autem sabbatórum, valde di-lículo, venérunt mu-lí-eres ad monumén-tum, portántes quæ paráverant arómata, et invenérunt lápidem revolú-tum a monuménto. Et ingressæ non invenérunt corpus Dómini Iesu.

Et factum est, dum mente hæsi-tárent de isto, ecce du-o vi-ri stetérunt secus illas in veste fulgénti. Cum timérent autem et declinárent vultum in terram, dixerunt ad illas: « Quid quæri-tis vivéntem cum mórtu-is?

Non est hic, sed surréxit ».

