Cum natus esset Iesus in Béthleem Iudæ-æ in di-ébus Heródis regis, ecce Magi ab ori- énte venérunt Hierosólymam, dicentes:

« ¿Ubi est qui natus est Rex Iudæ- órum? Vídimus enim stellam eius in ori- énte et vénimus adoráre e- um ». Audi- ens autem Heródes rex turbátus est et omnis Hierosólyma cum illo; et cóngregans omnes príncipes sacerdótum et scribas pópu- li scisci- tabátur ab e- is ubi Christus nasceré-tur. At illi dixérunt e-i: « In Béthleem Iudǽ-æ: sic enim scriptum est per Prophétam: “ Et tu, Béthleem terra Iuda, nequáquam mínima es in princípibus Iuda; ex te enim éxi-et dux, qui reget pópulum me-um Isra-el ” ». Tunc Heródes, clam vocá-tis Magis, di-ligénter dídicit ab e-is tempus stellæ quæ appáru-it e-is, et mittens illos in Béthleem, dixit: « I-te, et interrogáte di-ligénter de pú-ero; et cum invenéri-tis renunti-áte mihi, ut et ego véni-ens adórem e-um ». Qui, cum audíssent regem, abi-érunt, et ecce stella quam víderant in ori-énte antecedébat e-os, usque dum véni-ens staret supra ubi erat pu-er. Vidéntes autem stellam gaví-si sunt gáudi-o magno valde. Et intrántes domum vidérunt pú-erum cum Marí-a matre eius, et procidéntes adoravérunt e-um; et apértis thesáuris su-is, obtulérunt e-i múnera, aurum et thus et myrrham. Et respónso accépto in somnis ne redírent ad Heródem, per á-li-am vi-am revérsi sunt in regi-ónem su-am.
