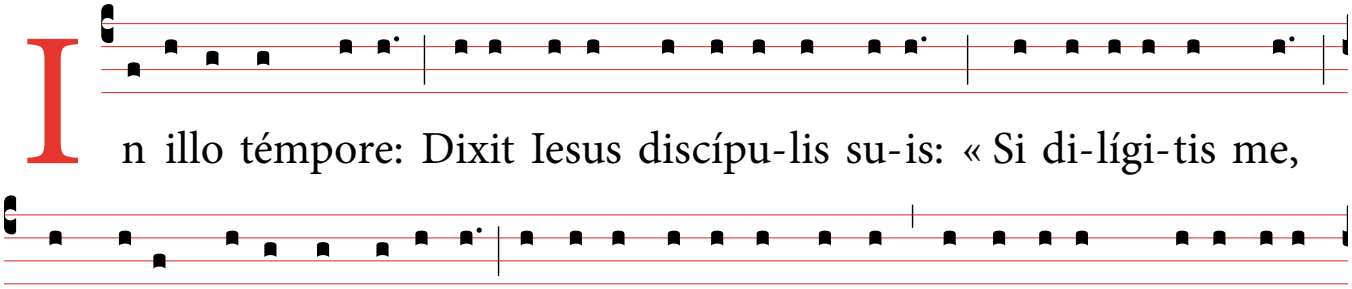
Gospel for Sixth Sunday of Easter

Year A

John 14:15–21

Tonus Antiquior

Dóminus vobíscum. ℟. Et cum spí-ritu tu-o. ℣. Lécti-o sancti Evangé-li-i secúndum Io-ánnem ℟. Glóri-a tibi, Dómine.



In illo témpore: Dixit Iesus discípu-lis su-is: « Si di-lígi-tis me, mandáta me-a servábi-tis; et ego rogábo Patrem et á-li-um Paráclitum dabit vobis ut máne-at vobíscum in ætérnum, Spí-ritum veri-tá-tis, quem mundus non potest accípere, qui-a non videt e-um nec scit: vos cognósci-tis e-um, qui-a apud vos manet et in vobis e-rit. Non re-línquam vos órphanos, véni-o ad vos. Adhuc módicum et mundus me iam non videt, vos autem vidé-tis me, qui-a ego vivo et vos vivé-tis.

In illo di-e vos cognoscé-tis qui-a ego sum in Patre me-o, et vos in me et ego in vobis. Qui habet mandata me-a et servat e-a, ille est qui dí-ligit me. Qui autem dí-ligit me, di-ligétur a Patre me-o, et ego dí-ligam e-um et mani-festábo e-i me ipsum ».

℣. Verbum Dómini. ℟. Laus tibi, Christe.