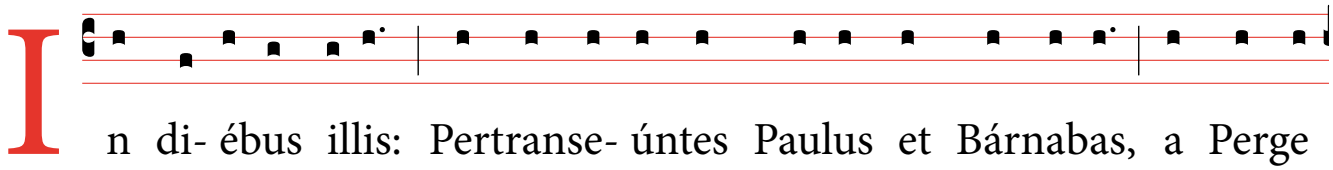
Reading I for Fourth Sunday of Easter

Year C

Acts 13:14, 43–52

Lécti-o Actu-um Apostolórum



In di- ébus illis: Pertranse- úntes Paulus et Bárnabas, a Perge venérunt Anti- ochí- am Pi- sídi- æ, et ingréssi synagógam di- e sabbatórum sedérunt. Secúti sunt multi Iudæ- órum et colénti- um proselytórum Paulum et Bárnabam, qui loquéntes su- adébant e- is ut permanérent in grá- ti- a De- i. Sequénti vero sábbato pæne univérsa cívi- tas convénit audíre verbum Dómini. Vidéntes autem turbas Iudǽ-i replé-ti sunt zelo et contradicébant his quæ a Paulo dicebántur, blasphemántes. Tunc audénter Paulus et Bárnabas dixérunt: « Vobis oportébat primum loqui verbum De-i; sed quóni-am repélli-tis illud et indígnos vos iudicá-tis térnæ vitæ, ecce convértimur ad gentes.

Sic enim præcépit nobis Dóminus: “ Pósu-i te in lumen génti-um ut sis in salútem usque ad extrémum terræ ”». Audi-éntes autem gentes gaudébant et glori-ficábant verbum Dómini, et credidérunt quotquot erant præ-ordiná-ti ad vi-tam ætérnam; ferebátur autem verbum Dómini per univérsam regi-ónem. Iudǽ-i autem conci-tavérunt honéstas inter coléntes mu-lí-eres et primos civi-tá-tis et exci-tavérunt persecuti-ónem in Paulum et Bárnabam, et eiecérunt e-os de fínibus su-is. At illi, excússo púlvere pedum in e-os, venérunt Icóni-um; discípu-li quoque replebántur gáudi-o et Spí-ritu Sancto.

℣. Verbum Dómini. ℟. De-o grá-ti-as.
