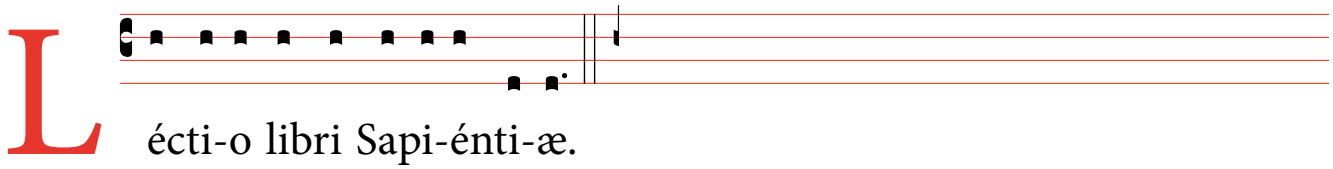
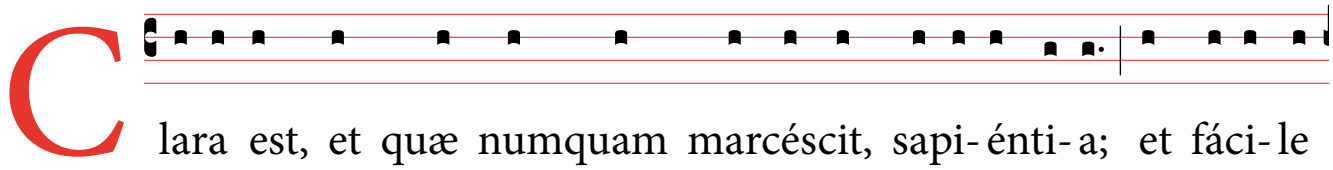
Reading I for Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Year A

Wisdom 6:12–16



Lécti-o libri Sapi-énti-æ.



Clara est, et quæ numquam marcéscit, sapi-énti-a; et fáci-le vidétur ab his qui dí-ligunt e-am, et invenítur ab his qui quærunt illam; præ-óccupat qui se concupíscunt, ut illis se pri-or osténdat.

Qui de luce vigi-láverit ad illam non laborábit; assidéntem enim illam fóribus su-is invéni-et. Cogi-táre ergo de illa sensus est consummátus, et qui vigi-láverit propter illam cito secúrus erit. Quóni-am dignos se ipsa círcu-it quærens, et in vi-is osténdit se illis hi-lári-ter, et in omni providénti-a occúrrit illis.

℣. Verbum Dómini. ℟. De-o grá-ti-as.
