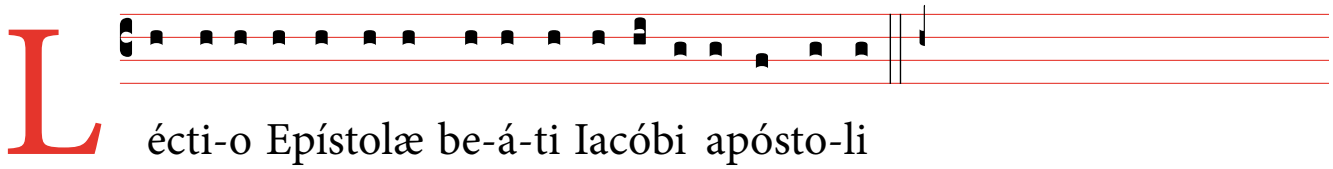
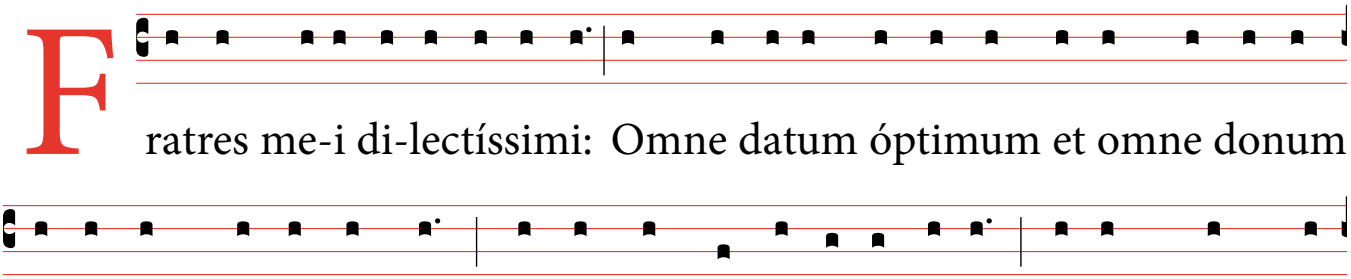
Reading II for Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Year B

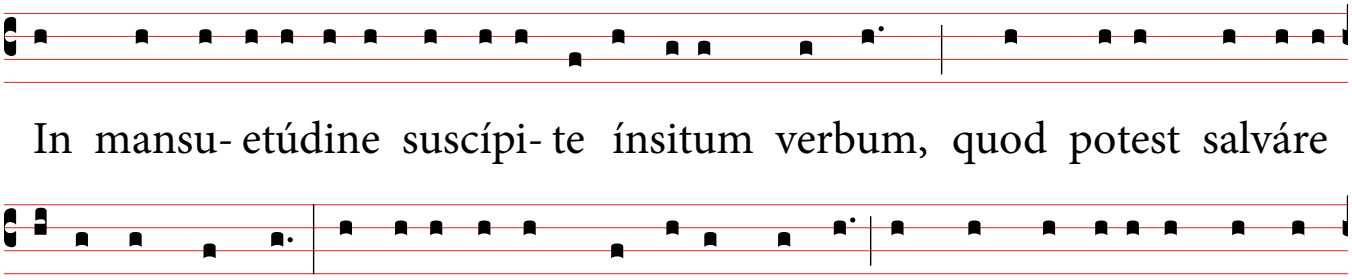
James 1:17–18, 21B–22, 27



Lécti-o Epístolæ be-á-ti Iacóbi apósto-li



Fratres me-i di-lectíssimi: Omne datum óptimum et omne donum perféctum de sursum est, descéndens a Patre lúminum, apud quem non est transmutá-ti-o nec vicissitúdinis obumbrá-ti-o. Voluntári-e génu-it nos verbo veri-tá-tis, ut simus primí-ti-æ quædam cre-atúræ eius.



In mansu-etúdine suscípi-te ínsitum verbum, quod potest salváre ánimas vestras. Estóte autem factóres verbi, et non auditóres tantum falléntes vosmet-ípsos. Re-lígi-o munda et immaculáta apud De-um et Patrem hæc est, vi-si-táre pupíllos et vídu-as in tribula-ti-óne e-órum, et immaculátum se custodíre ab hoc sæculo.

℣. Verbum Dómini. ℟. De-o grá-ti-as.
