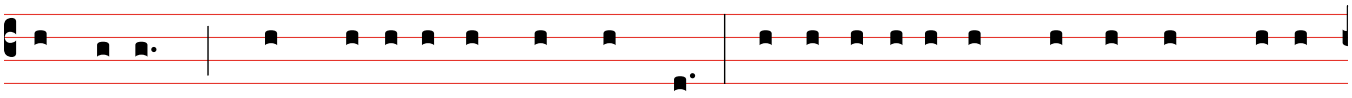
Reading I for Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Year C

Nehemiah 8:2–4A, 5–6, 8–10



lígne-um, quem fécerat ad loquéndum. Et apéru-it Esdras librum coram omni pópulo (super univérsum quippe pópulum eminébat), et cum aperu-ísset e-um, ste-tit omnis pópulus. Et benedíxit Esdras Dómino

De-o magno, et respóndit omnis pópulus: « Amen. Amen », é-levans manus su-as. Et incurvá-ti sunt, et adoravérunt De-um proni in terram.

Et legérunt in libro Legis De-i distíncte et apérte ad intellegéndum; et intellexérunt cum legerétur. Dixit autem Nehemí-as (ipse est Athérsatha) et Esdras, sacérdos et scriba, et levítæ interpretántes univérso pópulo: « Di-es sancti-ficátus est Dómino De-o nostro:

no- lí- te lugére et no- lí- te flere ». Flebat enim omnis pópulus, cum audíret verba Legis. Et dixit e-is: « I-te, comédi-te píngui-a, et bíbi-te mulsum, et mítti-te partes his qui non præparavérunt sibi; qui-a sanctus di-es Dómini est. Et no-lí-te contristári: gáudi-um étenim Dómini est fortitúdo nostra ».

℣. Verbum Dómini. ℟. De-o grá-ti-as.
